

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 921

---

Introduced by Assembly Member Jones

February 26, 2015

An act to add Section 7519.1 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to private investigators.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 921, as introduced, Jones. Private investigators: Disciplinary Review Committee.

The Private Investigator Act provides for the licensure and regulation of private investigators by the Bureau of Security and Investigative Services within the Department of Consumer Affairs and requires the Director of Consumer Affairs to administer and enforce the act. The act authorizes the director to deny, suspend, or revoke a license if the director determines, among other things, that any provision of the act was violated by the licensee. The act also authorizes the director to impose a civil penalty of no greater than $500 instead of suspending or revoking a license issued under the act for the violation of specified provisions if the director determines that the imposition of the civil penalty better serves the purposes of the act.

This bill would require the Governor to appoint a Private Investigator Disciplinary Review Committee, and authorizes the Governor to remove any member of the committee for misconduct, incompetency, or neglect of duty. The bill would require the committee to consist of 3 members actively engaged in the business of a licensed private investigator and 2 public members, as specified, and would require members to be appointed for a term of 4 years. The bill would require the committee to meet 60 days or more or less frequently as may be required, and would require that the members be paid per diem, as specified, and be reimbursed for actual travel expenses. The bill would authorize a person licensed under the act to appeal the assessment of an administrative fine to the committee, and would authorize a person denied a license under the act to appeal that denial to the committee, except as specified, if the appeal is in writing and made within 30 days of the assessment of the fine or denial of the license. The committee is required to notify the appellant in writing, by regular mail, of the committee's decision within 30 days of that decision. The bill would also authorize the appellant to request a hearing, as specified, if the appellant disagrees with the committee's decision regarding the appeal.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.
